Sherrard Booster Club Keeps Extra Activities Active

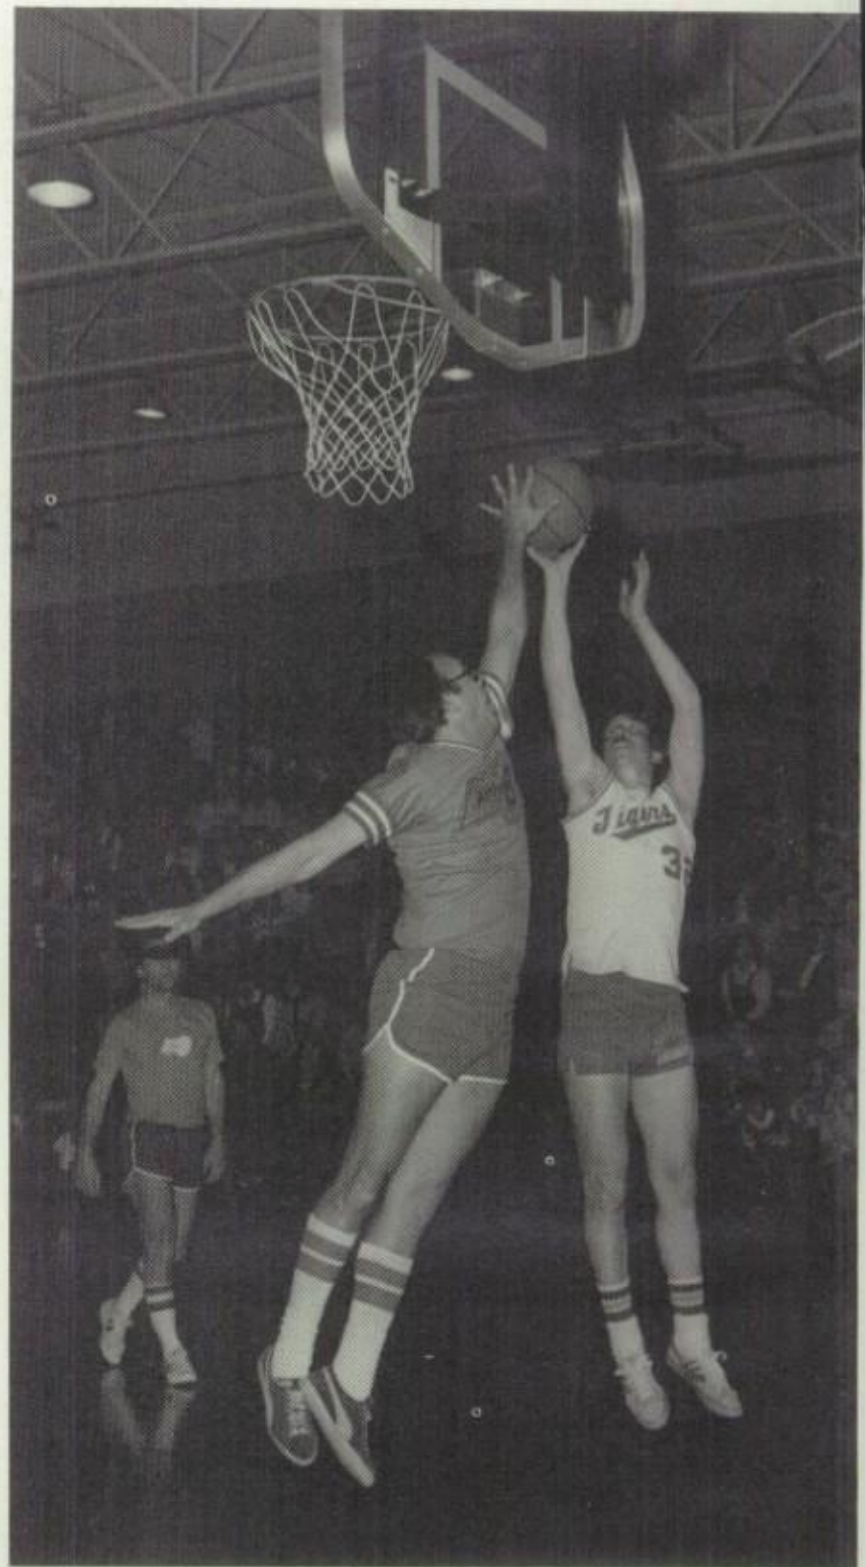

The year is now history. You survived the consolidation of junior high students in your territory! All the athletic and extracurricular programs that were deleted as the school began were reinstated. This was made possible by the Booster Club and an army of volunteer workers like yourselves. On behalf of the club I want to thank each and everyone of you for all your help and support.

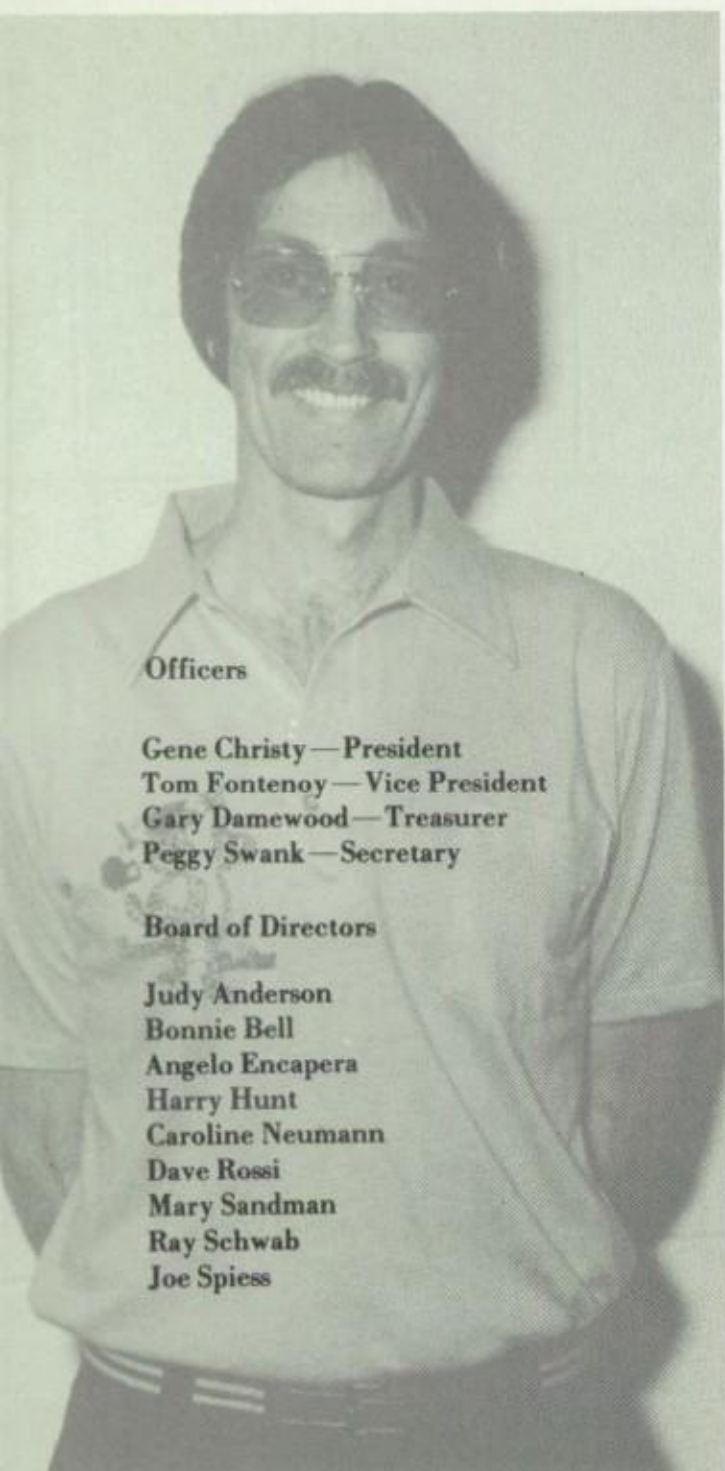

Could you imagine going home after school and never returning that evening for an athletic contest, play, chess match, or any other extracurricular activity. Will this be the last year for a yearbook? If there is one, will there be any pictures to put in it?

Because you and many concerned people in your community faced this challenge, we were able to say yes to these programs this year.

Boosters want to provide each student with the same opportunities we had in school. Will you provide that opportunity for the people who follow you? A school system that plans and works together can only succeed in the end.

A friend is someone you can depend on come rain or shine . . .

someone whose little acts
of thoughtfulness can really warm your heart.

A friend is the kind of person
you can just sort of relax and be yourself with . . .

the kind you can talk to confidentially about almost anything.

A friend is someone who shares your sense of humor . . .

as well as your taste
for life's finer things.

A friend is someone
who will gently
tell you your faults . . .

but will like you just as much in spite of them.

A friend is someone
who dares
to dream your dreams
with you . . .

someone who cheers
you up when you're feeling low . . .

and always knows just what it takes to make you happy.

"The direction in which education starts a man will determine his future life." Plato, The Republic

Members of the 1981-1982 Sherrard Senior High School have been involved with the formal process of education for a number of years. During this time, staff members employed by Unit 200 have attempted to provide for each individual the guidance and direction necessary for assisting with the development of one's future life. For the graduating Class of 1982, the formal process of secondary schooling is concluding. On behalf of the Community Unit 200 School District, I extend to each graduate my congratulations, and a sincere wish for success and happiness during the future.

Students Display Historical Talents

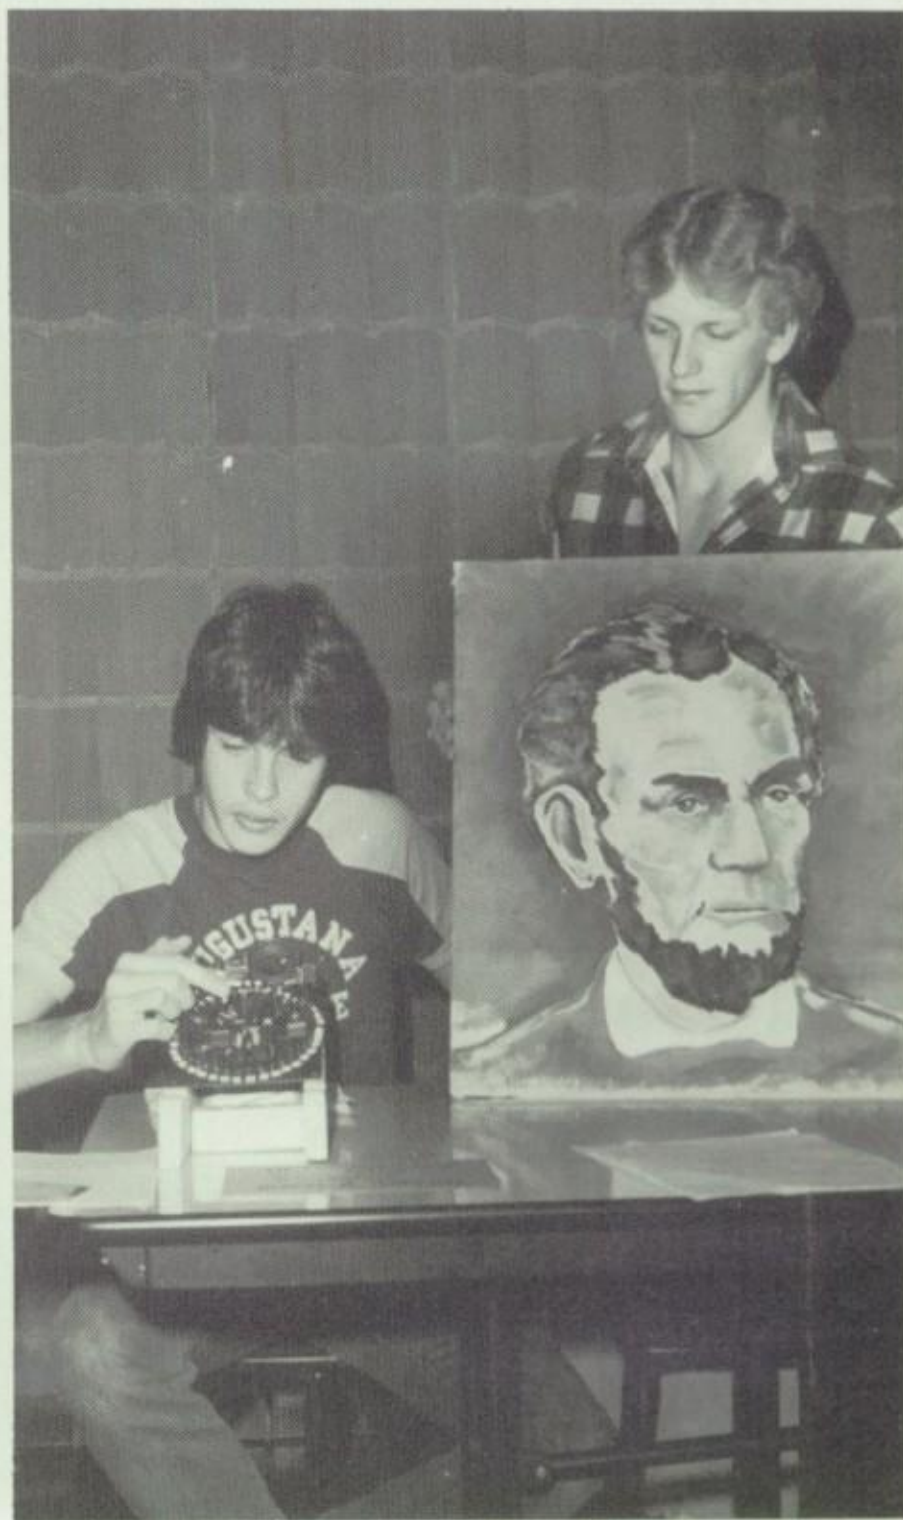

The Junior American History Class is involved in many outside the classroom activities. Entering articles in the Illinois History Magazine and making projects for various history shows make American History more "alive" for the students.

The students displayed various projects at two history shows—including models, handicrafts, art sculptures, and research papers.

Last year Gordon Heimann and Mike Perry advanced their project, a working model of "The 1909 Government Bridge in Rock Island" to the State and National level.

We are proud of Gordon and Mike who received an excellent award in Washington, D.C.

On the evenings of April 2, 3, and 4, the stage of the Sherrard High School Auditorium was transformed into the main street of River City, Iowa, in 1912 as Harold Hill came to town in "The Music Man."

Harold, a "two-bit, swindling thimble-rigger," earned his livelihood selling boys' bands, complete with uniforms, instruments, and instruction booklets. It was his plan to be out of town before anyone realized that he was a liar and a cheat.

While in River City, Harold fell in love with the town's librarian, Marian Paroo. Marian was soon aware of Hill's plan but decided not to expose him because he helped her brother Winthrop to overcome problems caused by his lisp and their father's death.

Harold's plan to stay in town and take his punishment could have resulted in tar and feathers had it not been for the appearance of the River City boys' band at the final curtain.

"The Music Man" by Meredith Willson is one of America's all-time favorite musicals. It was greeted in Sherrard with much enthusiasm. The cast and crew of the play, numbering over 70, were rewarded with a standing ovation at the end of each of its three performances; and the audiences left singing songs from the show, including "76 Trombones," "Till There Was You," "Wells Fargo Wagon," and "Iowa is Stubborn."

"A comedy of mistaken identity" would well describe this year's hilarious fall play See How They Run. The play told of the goings-on in an English vicarage when the vicar's wife Penelope Toop, a former American actress, was visited by an old friend, Clive Winton, who was an American soldier. She outfitted him in one of her husband's clerical suits, and the old maid of the parish, Miss Skillon, mistook Clive for the vicar, the Reverend Toop. When Penelope's uncle, the Bishop of Lax, arrived, he believed that the escaped Russian spy, who had knocked out the Reverend Toop and stolen his clothes, was the vicar. The Reverend Humphrey arrived and was advised by the maid Ida that "whatever you see, pretend you don't see, see?"

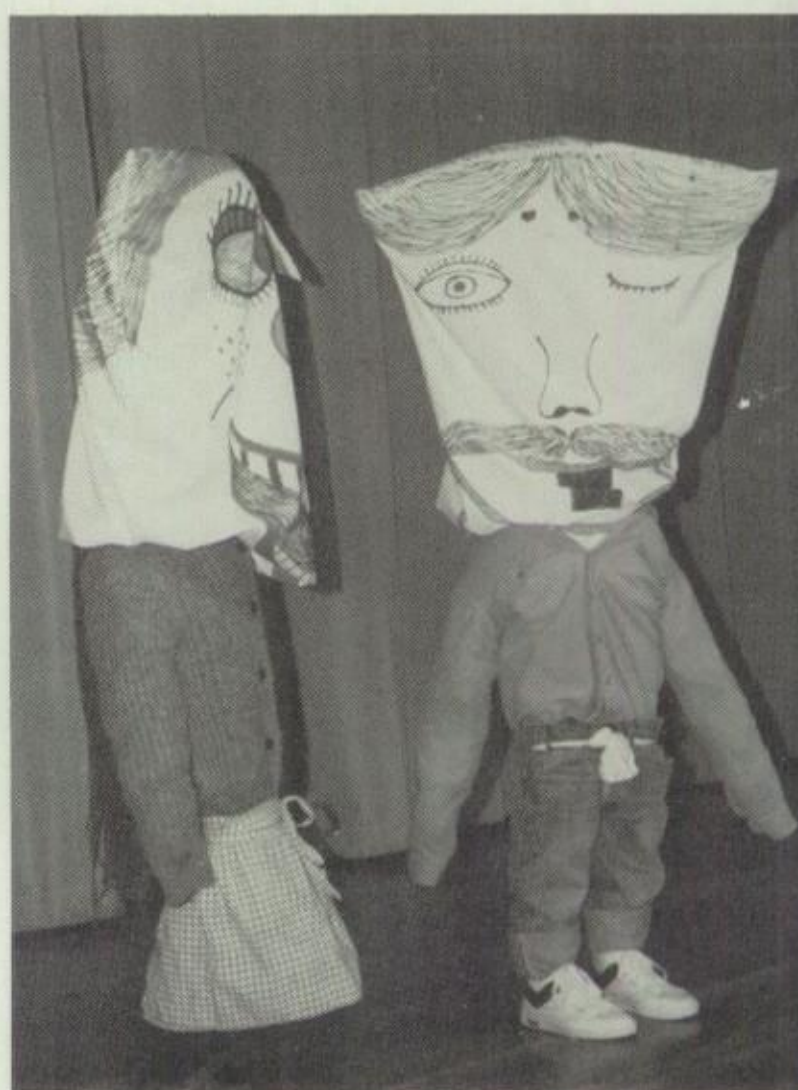

Confused? So was the audience until Sergeant Towers arrived on the scene to help settle things down and unravel the mystery.

See How They Run was another in an ever-growing list of Sherrard High School drama successes, a fact proven by recalling the roar of the audience's laughter and the excitement of the applause at the curtain calls.

Our Life together is so precious together
 We have grown--we have grown
 Although our love is still special
 Let's take a chance and fly away somewhere alone
 It's been too long since we took the time
 No-one to blame, I know time flies so quickly
 But when I see you darling
 It's like we both are falling in love again
 It'll be just like starting over
 Everyday we used to make it love
 Why can't we be making love nice and easy
 It's time to spread our wings and fly
 Don't let another day go by my love
 It'll be just like starting over
 Why don't we take off alone
 Take a trip somewhere far, far away
 We'll be together on our own again
 Like we used to in the early days
 Well, well, well, darling.

Sherrard Group Takes Paris by Storm

Last June 16 a group of Sherrard students and I left on a trip that we will all remember for a lifetime. Flying by 747 from Chicago through London and on to Paris seemed like it took forever, as we were all anxious to arrive at our destination. When we arrived, it was well worth the months of waiting and hours of travel. We saw all those things you are supposed to see in Paris, and we did all those things you are supposed to do. We will always have memories of seeing the Eiffel Tower and of riding in the Metro; we will never forget the evenings spent in the cafes or on the Seine River. We also enjoyed the trip because we were together—a handful of Sherrard natives thousands of miles away from home. This was the third Sherrard group to make the trip across the Atlantic. I, for one, hope that there will be many more.

Tom Swigle

French Students Go Back in Time in Galena

My goal in French Club has always been to teach students that there are other ways of life in addition to the life that we have in Sherrard Unit 200. In the past we have traveled to Paris to sample "la vie francaise" and to Chicago to eat in French restaurants.

This year, we ventured to Galena to eat a meal as French people did 500 years ago, in the style of the Middle Ages. For utensils, we had only knives. The evening was filled with singing and merriment, and we came away appreciating modern conveniences. Have you ever tried eating vanilla pudding with your fingers?

Love and Respect Motivate the Tigers

Sherrard football stresses teamwork. Each player is asked not to think of personal and selfish goals. He is asked to think of team goals. He learns to work for the good of his fellow players and in the end he finds that he has benefited himself far more than if he would have worked for only himself. It works that way because we learn that love and respect for other human beings motivates far more than if he would have worked for only himself. It works that way because we learn that love and respect for other human beings motivates far better than selfish greed. How much better would society be if we all loved each other like the Tigers love each other?

Season Is Highlighted by Third Place Finish

The 1981-82 Varsity season was an inconsistent season. Our team showed a tremendous amount of desire and hustle, but wasn't able to play well for a complete game enough times. The highlight of our season was a third place finish in the Orion Tourney. Our team has been frustrating at times, but a lot of fun to work with.

Your attitude is great, and this is deeply appreciated. Thanks, team.

District Wins Top Off the Season

The 1981 boys and girls track teams have proven to be the most successful in Sherrard's track history.

The boys team, dominated by a strong corps, won the Conference meet and completed a three year sweep of the District title.

The girls continued to show their winning ways with a second in the Conference meet and a two year sweep in the District.

Both teams were led by an outstanding group of upperclass runners. The "challenge" has been given to the underclass to continue their track dominance.

Sharing fraternalism begins with the family

The family is the bedrock of fraternalism. The family structure radiates love and togetherness for all its members and for its surrounding community as well.

For more than eight decades, the Royal Neighbors of America "family" has been helping to further love and togetherness among its members through life insurance plans and fraternal activity programs.

RNA life insurance protects loved ones by providing savings for education, mortgage protection and for retirement and other future needs. RNA members, through their local camps, participate in a myriad of social, recreational and community benefit programs.

More than 300,000 Royal Neighbors family members are "sharing fraternalism" each and every day.

Let us now suppose that in the mind of each man there is an aviary of all sorts of birds — some flocking together apart from the rest, others in small groups, others solitary, flying anywhere and everywhere . . . We may suppose that the birds are kinds of knowledge, and that when we were children, this receptacle was empty; whenever a man has gotten and detained in the enclosure a kind of knowledge, he may be said to have learned or discovered the thing which is the subject of the knowledge: and this is to know.

*The time draws near for each of us
To go his separate way
The grand finale, the final end
Of all our high school days.
We'll never forget the good times
We'll try to forget the bad
But our days at Sherrard High School
Are the best we've ever had.
We face uncertainties in days
ahead
But we're sure to make it through
If we keep our heads held high
And our future goals in view.
So we say farewell through smiles
and tears
We give our warmest embrace
We leave our friends to enter life
To each his individual race.*

—Kris Young
